DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 28-51 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Leslic (6,212,688). Leslic discloses an article of clothing for hanging on a mounted rod without the use of a hanger. The strap forming a flap with a fastener is said to be either removably attached to the garment or, as claimed in the instant application, being permanently fastened to the garment (col. 1, lines 58-61). The ring fastener has an opening with both an open and closed configuration, which can be inserted onto a rod when the opening is in the open configuration and is secured to the rod in when the fastener is in the closed position. With respect to Claim 50, the ring fastener has a slit with a right ledge and a left edge wherein a rod can be passed between the ledges to attach the fastener to the rod. With respect to Claim 51, the article of clothing disclosed by Leslic provides a flap portion with a fastener for attaching the article of clothing to a rod. The ring fastener has an opening with both an open and closed configuration, which can be inserted onto a rod when the opening is in the open configuration and is secured to the rod in when the fastener is in the closed position. With respect to Claims 29-49, all the dependent Claims fall with Claim 28 as they are apparatus Claims and there being no further steps to define the method of Claim 28.
